

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

---

History of Naval Postgraduate School

History of Naval Postgraduate School Documents

---

1981

US Coast Guard at Monterey World War II Chronology

Monterey, California: Naval Postgraduate School

---

<http://hdl.handle.net/10945/67207>

---

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

US Coast Guard
at Monterey
World War II

Chronology

- |                  |                                                                                                                                                           |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7 September 1940 | 24 foot patrol boat arrived.                                                                                                                              |
| 8 December 1941  | LCDR Burnham, USCG,and crew of 100 men tookcharge of port security inMonterey Bay.                                                            |
| 8 May 1944       | Coast Guard Air-Sea RescueService established an officeat NAAS Monterey.                                                                          |
| 17 October 1945  | Coast Guard Cutter Cahooneassigned permanent home portat Monterey.                                                                                |
| 1 January 1946   | Coast Guard Station officiallyestablished at Lighthouse Avenueand Spence Street near itspresent location on the hilloverlooking the pier. |